

Who Can Act For Prospective Tenants?

Here is a quick reference to the services that can – and cannot – be provided with either a trading services licence or a rental property management services licence.

If you are licensed for rental property management services only, you cannot enter into a contract with a prospective tenant looking for a rental property. Only someone licensed to provide trading services can work on behalf of a prospective tenant to find a property to rent.

SERVICE	TRADING SERVICES LICENCE	RENTAL PROPERTY MANAGEMENT LICENCE
Assist a landlord to find tenants
Assist a prospective tenant to find a property to rent
Collect rents from tenants on behalf of a property owner
Collect security deposits from tenants on behalf of a property owner
Make payments on behalf of the property owner to third parties
Negotiate or enter into contracts on behalf of the property owner
Supervise employees or contractors hired by the owner
Manage landlord and tenant matter

BC Financial Services Authority regulates real estate professionals to protect consumers. Visit us online to find information on real estate transactions, ask us a question, file a complaint or an anonymous tip www.bcfsa.ca

Classification: Public

600-750 West Pender Street
Vancouver, B.C. V6C 2T8

T 866 206 3030
F 866 660 3365

You're Protected
bcfsa.ca